

Apprenticeship solutions that work for everyone

MAXIMUS is an international provider of training, skills development and apprenticeships to a range of public and private sector employers across a variety of sectors.

We believe that great businesses flourish when they have a highly trained, resilient and diverse workforce. Our combined approach, delivering high quality, bespoke apprenticeship training along with wellbeing and lifestyle support ensures that you have a skilled workforce that can tackle the challenges that your business may face. Our training is designed to be inclusive, offering additional learning support in areas such as mental and physical disability to ensure you can maximise the potential of all of your staff.

This approach will show you a real demonstrable impact on your business objectives and clear return on investment with a more resilient and efficient workforce.

A solution that works for you

The world of work is changing, creating ever increasing challenges for employers wanting to maximise the skills of their workforce. Our approach, built around our four key principles allows us to tailor solutions that meet the needs of your business and learners.

This approach will help the apprenticeship levy work for you and future-proof your business.

Our key principles

- 1 Quality: Throughout the learning lifecycle, our focus is on programmes that deliver a return on your investment.
- 2 Flexibility: Working in partnership to tailor apprenticeships that recognise the unique dynamics of your business.
- 3 Promoting positive health and wellbeing: Helping create healthy, happy apprentices to reduce absenteeism, increase productivity and progression in work.
- 4 Disability confidence and support: Helping support and develop all talent, whilst creating the next generation of Disability Confident and capable leaders.

Tailored apprenticeships matched to your business

We know that every employer is unique. We provide quality learning, tailor-made to meet organisational priorities and workforce development strategies. The apprenticeship standards and qualifications we offer span Leadership and Management, Business Administration and Customer Service, meaning they are suitable for a diverse range of employees, from the front line to senior managers. We'll work with you to design a tailored training plan that aligns with your business dynamics.

Through our specialist partners Remploy, Health Management and Revitalised, and strategic alliances with awarding bodies such as the Chartered Management Institute (CMI) we deliver bespoke solutions that respond to the unique challenges your business faces.

A trusted partner

We know that now more than ever there is a need for a training partner who can be trusted to unlock potential and provide expert advice on accessing the skills that every business needs to grow and succeed.

Listed on the Education and Skills Funding Agency Register of Apprenticeship training providers, our expertise in employer-led training, skills development and apprenticeships will help you and your business to make the most of your greatest asset...your people.
